

Richard Ross Finn, 26

Richard Ross Finn, 26, passed away peacefully on April 13 in Plymouth, MA. Born in Boston, he was a graduate of Duxbury High School, class of 2007, and Duxbury is where he lived most of his life. He graduated with honors from UMass Amherst Commonwealth Honors College, Isenberg School of Management 2012, where he majored in business. He was employed and living in Plymouth, MA.

He is survived by his mother Nancy Hnat Cluett and husband Bruce E. Cluett; his father Daniel J. Finn, III, Esq.; his sister Katherine Ross Finn and brother Daniel J. Finn IV.; and grandmother Sylvia C. Hnat and grandfather Daniel J. Finn II, Esq.; and many friends and other family.

“Rick” as he was known, will be remembered by many as a loving, caring person, who had a keen sense of humor and a great devotion to his family and friends.

A funeral was held Saturday, April 23 at Holy Family Church in Duxbury, MA. Donations may be made in Rick’s name to the Brook Retreat, 55 Brook Street, Plympton, MA 02367.